In the latest hydrographic bulletin is the statement from the New York Her-ald that "a pilot has searched the Midald that "a pilot has zearched the Mid-die Ground near Cape Henry for the sunken barge Caravan and was unable to find the obstruction." The Caravan was sunk June 12th about two and one-half miles northeasterly from Cape Henry lighthouse and has since been a decided menace to navigation and was for a time marked with a gas buoy de-scribed in list of beacons, buoys and day-marks of Fifth Lighthouse District as a red and black horizontally striped conical buoy, surmounted by pyramidal lattleework supporting lantern, showing fixed white light, moored off stern of wreek. This buoy has gone adrift, pra-sumably in the great storm of August 16th-19th, this year. If the wreek has

HIGH TONED ANIMALS That Sleep in Palace Cors and Wear Clothes.

Clothes.

The best cared for lot of animals in the world are probably the dog and pony members of Prof. Gentry's famous dog and pony show, which will exhibit under canvas in this city at Ball Park Friday and Saturday, October 20 and 21, at 2:30 and 3 p. m. They travel in palace cars and are as carefully watched over as though they were children. The most aristocratic member of the company is Pinto, the tiny elephant. He wears a suit of clothes and a hat whenever he is exposed to the elements. The hat was constructed especially for him and measured in size 21. His chothes were made by a fashionable tailor and he is in every respect a swell. The prices of admission are: Children 15c., and adults, 25c. oc13-1t

DELAWAREANS HERE

Legislators of the "Diamond" State Our Guests for Two Days.

Met at Old Point Comfort by Recoption Committee - Address of Welcome by Mayor Johnston at Norfolk received within her confines last night a distinguished party of guests, the gentlemen composing the Legislature of the State of Delaware. The party numbers about eighty per-

They left Wilmington, Del., vesterday at 9 a. m. yesterday on a special train over the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk and reached Cape Charles City at 2:10 p. m. Three hours were pleasantly spent inspecting this thriving little city. Cape Charles was left at 4:55 and Old Point reached at 7 p. m. Here the visitors were met by the Norfolk reception committee, and they became the guests of the city.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

Johnston in the following cordial words:
 "I extend you a hearty greeting.
 "We Virginians are very proud of our State, and it affords us great pleasure to receive within our borders visitors from our sister State, that we may extend to them Virginia hospitality and show them the wonders of our magnificent harbor; the inexhaustible treasures beneath our soil, and the phenomenal growth of this, our "City by the Sea."
 "While in some respects your State and our own are rivals, in ship-building common interest, that you are more like brothers than strangers to us, and I gladly surrender the keys of our city to you to-night. We are yours to command, yet I think you will find those in waiting who propose to effect your capture, and convinee you that our welcome is something that is very tangible; something that can be seen, handled and tasted, and much more agreeable to you than any talk of mine; therefore I bid you welcome and turn you over to the tender mercies of our you over to the tender mercies of our you over to the tender mercies of our people."

RESPONSE BY HON, T. F. CLARK.

The response was very gracefully made by Hon, T. F. Clark, of Delaware City, speaker of the Delaware House. He expressed the pleasure of the visitors at their cordial reception and voiced the hope that the people of Delaware would have an opportunity to return the courtesies extended.

This was followed by a song by the Temple quartette, of Wilmington, Del. The visitors then went in to supper, after which they spent the evening in various ways, retiring in good season so as to enjoy the program of entertainment to-day.

NORFOLK AND HARBOR.

To-day will be spent as follows:

9.20 a. m.—Street-car ride over every route in Norfolk as the guests of Norfolk Street Railway Company.

12 m.—Tug-boat ride up and down the harbor (stopping at navy yard for one hour), the guests of Capt, Twohy, of Norfolk.

Keeling and a committee from Berkley City Council, followed by a car ride over the Berkley street railway line as the guests of the Berkley Street Railway Company.

§ to 11 p. m.—Welcome at the Board of Trade and Business Men's Association rooms.

At 10 a. m. to-morrow the visitors will enjoy a trip to Old Point and Fortress Monroe over the Norfolk, Ocean View and Old Point railroad as the guests of that road.

THE TEMPLE QUARTETTE.

THE TEMPLE QUARTETTE.

Much pleasure is afforded the Delawareans on their present trip by the presence with them of the Temple Quartette, one of the leading musical organizations of that State. This crack quartette is composed as follows: James V. Harbert, first tenor; J. F. Ayres, second tenor; A. S. Muhlhausen, first bass; F. H. Mason, second bass.
They are also accompanied by Mr. A.

They are also accompanied by Mr. A. C. Bartlett, a noted elocutionist of Wilmington, Del.

The visitors are as fine a looking body of men as ever visited this city, and are representatives that their State may well be proud of.

A Handsome Sign.

Yesterday one of the handsomest bus-Yesterday one of the handsomest business signs in the city was put up by the maker, Mr. John O'Keefe, on Ferebee & Jones' new building, at the corner of Main and Commerce street. The sign extends along the whole front on both streets, filling the space between window caps of the second and sills of the third stories. It is of carved and gilded letters mounted on heavy wire netting framed in iron rails with gilded points above and below. It attracts much attention, and reflects credit on much attention, and reflects credit of the maker and the firm it advertises.

OYSTER SHUCKERS' STATEMENT

CLAIM THAT UNION DID NOT ORDER STRIKE.

J. A. Jarvis, president, and J. H. J. A. Jarvis, president, and J. H. Cromwell, secretary and manager of the Shuckers' United Co-operative Fraternity of Virginia, including the union oyster shuckers, make a statement setting forth their side of the trouble between the packers and shuckers, in which they deny that the union has ordered, or is even aiding the present strike. The packing firms of Crosby & Co., Elliott & Co., Ironmonger, and Hemmingway & Co., discharged the leading men of their respective establishments, and told the other shuckers to go to work. With about fifteen exceptions more than 400 men went to their homes before the union even knew of the trouble.

Closed Yesterday at Cape Charles -- Election of Officers.

Order of United American Mechanics, day, closed yesterday. There were about one hundred and fifty delegates present, representing the 142 councils in

The local councils were represented follows:
Norfolk—Messrs. W. R. Butcher, C. W. Todd, C. E. Hunt, W. R. McLeilan, L. E. Howard, J. T. Trimyer.
State Council Sentinel — James S. Groves, national representative.
Portsmouth—Messrs, G. H. Pettijohn and E. L. Pollard.
Berkley—Messrs, E. L. Cox and J. O. Wiggs. The local councils were represented as Berkley-Messrs. E. L. Cox and C. Wiggs.

Tuesday morning the Grand Council was called to order by Mr. David Bottom, State councillor. An address of welcome was delivered by Hon. John W. Carroll, acting Mayor of Cape Charles, in which he extended the freedom of the city to the delegates. The response was made by Mr. Thomas B. Ivey, of Petersburg, State Council secretary, The council then went into secret session.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: State Councillor, Floyd A. Hudgins, of Newport News; State Vice-Councillor, R. E. Criddle, of Richmond; State Council Secretary, Thomas B. Ivey, of Petersburg (re-elected); Trzasurer, George W. Kinsey, of Richmond; State Council Conductor, G. Nelson Cradlin, of Alexandria; State Warden, Z. T. Hiltzhimer, of Saitville; Inside Sentinel, W. W. Bland, of Crewe; Outside Sentinel, E. E. Kuhn, of Richmond; Three Trustees, C. W. Todd, of Norfolk; W. U. Yeuman, of Richmond, NOTION: W. U. FELIMAN, OF RECEMBERS, M. A. H. Pettijchn, of Bortzmouth, NEXT PLACE OF MEETING. It was decided to hold the next meeting on the third Monday in October. 1900, at Roanoke.

PER CAPITA TAX.

PER CAPITA TAX.

Much discussion arose yesterday over the ner capita tax of the national organization, and considerable refuctance was expressed as to paying this. The matter was debated at length and with some heat, but finally resolutions of a conciliatory nature were passed.

It is understood that the lodges of some other States are verging on rebellion, or in open rebellion, against bellion, or in open rebellion, against such enforced payments to the national organization. It is also understood that the lodges of Virginia are strongly opposed to such payment, but are yet hopeful that the matter may be adjusted satisfactorily to all concerned. The matter of establishing a funeral benefit association, based on membership, was also discussed.

HEAVY GROWTH OF THE ORDER. The order has enjoyed a large growth in the past year, especially in Virginia, which is the banner State of the Union in new membership, as it has a record of nineteen new councils and nearly two thousand new members during the past fiscal year, fiscal year.

J. VINCENT PERLEY.

J. VINCENT PERLEY.

A prominent representative present was Mr. J. Vincent Perley, national representative from Charlottesville, Va. He is a member of forty-five orders and treasurer of eleven. He is a thirty-second degree Mason and presents an imposing sight when wearing his regalla of the Mystic Shrine and the symbols and jewels of the various orders to which he belongs. He reached Norfolk last night and leaves for his home today.

ceptions more than 400 men went to their homes before the union even knew of the trouble.

The union leaders, while they did not order the strike, say that the action of the packers Monday was taken without just cause, and only on the ground that they had received a most respectfully worded petition from the union on September 1st asking that a uniform measure of nine pints to the gallon, used by all packers, at 10 cents per measure, and each pints to the gallon, used by all packers, at 10 cents per measure, be adopted, and that the practice of money-lending be dispensed with.

The firms of Atwood & Bacon, R. R. Higgins & Co., John E. Kenp & Co., D. Atwood & Co., H. & R. Atwood, and the Hemingway Pucking Company, all replied in writing agreeing to these requests, but it seems that the trouble continued, and finally led up to the discharge of the union leaders in the four houses mentioned.

In the meantime all the packing houses having agreed to employ only incomunion men after Monday morning next, there will probably be but if that time, when the crisis will probably be but if the development in the situation until that time, when the crisis will probably be under the development in the situation until that time, when the crisis will probably be worted in the four houses having agreed to employ only incomunion men after Monday morning next, there will probably be but if the development in the situation until that time, when the crisis will probably be reached.
